VOLUME 1 FOSTER CARE FILM

“A powerful message...provides a unique glimpse of one foster child's experience”

*- Kim Phagan-Hansel
Foster Families Today*

In this award-winning collection, Charell, Ashley and Camilla are former foster care youth sharing their deeply personal stories about their experiences. Foster Care Film Series: Volume 1 celebrates the perseverance of these narratives, dispelling the negative stereotypes about foster care by showing how school, extended family and the kindness of strangers can help a child find their path in life.

- ▶ A series of short live action films profiling individual youth's journeys' through the U.S. foster care system
- ▶ Includes the first three films of the series: Feeling Wanted (2015) My Identity (2016) and Family Rewritten (2017) all directed by Emmy-nominated animator and filmmaker Yasmin Mistry.
- ▶ Robust community engagement support, with past screenings and events at Columbia University, Fordham University, the NYC Family Courts, Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) and the Children's Aid Society.
- ▶ Screened at over 40 national and international festivals and symposiums with over 20 awards and recognitions combined.
